

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

In Re.

No. C 12-212 SI (pr)

PATRICIA HARRIS,
Plaintiff.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This case was opened when the court received from plaintiff a letter in which she complained about some of the conditions at the prison at which she was incarcerated. In an effort to protect her rights, it was filed as a new case. Plaintiff was informed that she had not filed a complaint and was given thirty days to do so. She also was sent a notice that she had not paid the filing fee or applied for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. She was allowed thirty days to either pay the fee or file the application. A copy of the court's form for in forma pauperis application was provided with the notice, along with a return envelope. In response, she wrote back that she was "not able at this time to file a civil complaint" but might file an action when she is released from prison next year. (Docket # 4.) This case is therefore DISMISSED without prejudice. No fee is due. The clerk shall close the file.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
